Are you a loyal American? Will you support the Constitution of the United States? These questions were asked by Rev. J. H. Brooks at the Methodist Church Sunday morning in a sermon on law enforcement. Mr. Brooks showed that Prohibition is not a debatable question any longer but a part of the fundamental law of the land, and that every loyal citizen must stand for total abstinence. A strong plea for law enforcement in Okolona was made and for the creation of sentiment that will demand that officers do their duty or be removed from office.

Hog Helps

Dr. A. L. Bevan, of the Federal Bureau of Animal Industry, in cooperation with the State live Stock Sanitary Board has been transferred to Tupelo on Hog Cholera Control. His work consists in helping the farmers in preventing losses from cholera and other diseases of swine by making diagnosis, vaccinating and other means. His territory consists of the counties in the northeastern part of the state and all correspondence should be addressed, Dr. A. L. Bevan, P. O. Box 160, Tupelo, Miss. and telephone calls thru the Tupelo Chamber of Commerce. There is no charge for his services.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. Laura Wayne Furell, the family and relatives of Mrs. Margaret A. George sincerely appreciate the kind attention and many floral offerings bestowed by their friends in their recent bereavement.

Because I cannot clean and press in the rear of my shop and because I cannot make a living with tailor work only, I have decided to open my pressing and cleaning shop in the front. I will do pressing and dry cleaning only. As soon as warm weather comes I will do scrubbing work also. If you want your black or blue suit, coat suit or dress cleaned and pressed without gloss or shine call or telephone Hodeck, the tailor, and he will guarantee you satisfaction.
M. Hodeck.

The Banker
Wouldn't Quit!

When the sawmills moved out of a certain Northern woods town it looked like the finish of business there for everyone—farmers, merchants, banker. But the banker refused to quit. "If I can make dairying and poultry-keeping profitable my bank will make money," said he. The story of his efforts and the money-making prosperity that has come to his community is told in the current issue of

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

This bank aims to extend the same sort of service to this community. We should like to know every farmer whereabouts—to help every farmer make money. Come to us with your problems and let us see if together we cannot boost your bank account. As a step towards that prosperity, we urge you to read each week THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. Whatever line of farming you are following—livestock, dairying, poultry, grain, fruit, truck, corn, bees—there is something for you each week in the many pages of the Great National Farm Weekly. If you authorize us, we shall be glad to charge your account $1.00 for a year's subscription. Or, better still, come in; let's talk it over personally and get acquainted.
